What Does
San Francisco Mean
For the Negro?

The Negro people have a direct stake in the success of the San Francisco Conference. All the peoples of the world, of every color, race or creed, want a chance to live decently, securely, and in peace. The United Nations meeting in San Francisco is a door to that opportunity.

How has this war against fascism been carried forward toward victory? Through the united planning and action of the anti-fascist nations, and particularly of the Big Three—the United States, the Soviet Union and Great Britain.

How can we carry forward the winning of a people's peace—the extermination of Jim Crowism and anti-Semitism; the abolition of unemployment and poverty; the end of the exploitation of colonial peoples? Through the same unity of aim and action for the tasks of peace as for the tasks of war.

There is no other way! We must press forward with determination toward the post-war goal of international unity, cooperation and democracy for which our great leader, President Roosevelt, labored and sacrificed his life.

A plan for such unity of aim and action has been drawn up in the Dumbarton Oaks proposals. At the Yalta Conference in February, it was agreed by Roosevelt, Stalin and Churchill that the representatives of all the United Nations—which in-

THE THIRD SESSION OF THE

Mount Holyoke Institute On The United Nations

JUNE 25 - JULY 22, 1950

Offers a balanced program planned by consultants from 15
New England colleges, the Carnegie Endowment for International Peace and other organizations on the general theme:

TOWARDS A WORLD COMMUNITY

Members visit the United Nations at Lake Success weekly.

The Institute is a new type of educational project planned primarily for busy men and women who seek a greater understanding of international problems. Each week a score of non-governmental specialists and officials from the United Nations, the United States of America and other countries serve as lecturers and discussion leaders.

THE UNITED NATIONS NEED CHINA

BY DEREK BRYAN

(Mr. H. D. Bryan, O.B.E., M.A. (Cantab), first went to China as a Student Interpreter in the Consular Service in 1932. He served in a number of consular posts and in 1941-42 was Private Secretary to H.M. Ambassador to China (the late Lord Inverchapel, then Sir A. Clark Kerr). Mr. Bryan, who has travelled or resided in twenty provinces of China, reads and speaks Chinese fluently. He was First Secretary (Chinese Affairs) at H.M. Embassy Nanking 1946-50 and Peking 1950-51. He retired from the Foreign Service in 1952.)

'The sooner the Government which represents the vast majority of the Chinese people is admitted to membership of the United Nations the more hope there will be of a permanent settlement . . .' THE ARCHBISHOP OF YORK.
